

NUMBERS GAME

These are made from plastic drain pipe, coloured tape and sticky numbers. There are several sets of these, each with a different colour band. The riders choose which colour they want to be, and put the small coloured ring onto the bending pole of their choice. The numbers are hidden around the indoor school and they have to be collected in the correct order and dropped over the pole.