

Roundabout Build a simple roundabout out of poles or dressage boards
Ask the riders to halt before entry to roundabout check to see if another rider on if so wait and let them pass or exit and then walk around and signal before they leave the roundabout. So we are teaching them highway code but also to halt and put reins in one hand move off waiting there turn steering and special awareness.

